New York City Ballet Principal Dancer: Sébastien Marcovici

We are excited to announce a special guest teacher, Sébastien Marcovici, A New York City Principal Dancer. This is a great opportunity for serious dancers to study from a Principal dancer trained at the prestigious Paris Opera. (His bio follows.) We are planning to hold 2 classes. Please email your intentions to participate ASAP. We are accepting dancers on a first come, first serve basis. Please text your friends and email ASAP info@pybco.org or call 724.969.6000 to reserve your spot with a credit card.

Advanced Class will be held from 3:30-5:00 for High School, Pre High School and Wine dancers (please wear a black leotard) and 5:00-6:30 Moss, Lilac, Light Blue and Copen dancers ages 10-14 (please wear a white leotard).

*Please note: the cost of this class is $20 per dancer. If you are using a punch card, you may use one punch and pay $10 as well. You may not use 2 punches. Please register early

Thank you so much for your continued support of PYBC and we hope you can take advantage of this great opportunity!

Sébastien Marcovici

Born and raised in Paris, France, Sébastien Marcovici began his ballet training at age eight with local teachers, and at age 12 he enrolled at the School of the Paris Opéra Ballet. During the summer of 1993, while studying with Jean-Pierre Bonnefoux and Patricia McBride at the Chautauqua School of Dance, Mr. Marcovici was invited by Ballet Master in Chief Peter Martins to take Company class with New York City Ballet at Saratoga Springs. In November of 1993, he was invited to join New York City Ballet's corps de ballet. Mr. Marcovici was promoted to the rank of soloist in 1998 and to principal dancer in May 2002.
